

Rugby Club Groningen

Rugby Club Groningen is looking for a new head coach!

Are you a head coach that wants to develop his or her skills on and off the pitch towards the highest rugby level in The Netherlands? You have the chance to work with a rough diamond: the first team of Rugby Club Groningen. This team is currently performing in the top of the 'Eerste klasse' and is always looking for ways to become better as a team.

What you'll be working with:

Rugby Club Groningen is growing rapidly. Within the last 5-10 years the membership numbers have grown exponentially. Currently the club has: 4 men's teams, a women's team and youth teams in every age category. With this growth, the ambition also develops. The first team has seen two championships (and promotions) in the last eight years. The last four years they have been playing in the second highest level (eerste klasse) and have been pursuing promotion in the last two.

What we bring to the table:

- A large group of players to work with (2 teams have a minimum of 30 players each training)
- A warm club culture with great rugby hospitality
- A fitting salary to a (possibly self-employed) coaching professional

What you bring to the table:

- Club and team focused with great 'people' and communication skills
- Ability to develop players to reach their potential
- Ability to motivate players and staff
- Good planning skills
- Minimum level 3 coach willing to become a high performance coach
- Makes sure team is well organized and disciplined on and off the field (with the help of a dedicated team manager)
- Pro-active
- Passionate and dependable
- Pre: Good understanding back play attack & defense
- Pre: good connection with the region (North of the Netherlands)

What you'll do

- You're responsible for training the performance teams (team 1 and 2)
- You're head coach of all matches of the first team.
- You're working together with the Development Coach (team 2) and possible other coaches (such as a forwards coach, back coach and S&C coach).
- As a head coach you're part of the technical committee of the club
- As a head coach you're responsible for the pre-season trainings
- The head coach stays in touch with the coaches of the U16s and U18s about development

Are you the trainer/coach that can help a growing club to maintain their growth and help players (and an entire region) reach their full potential?
